Dear Member,

Thank you for your interest in applying for the role of Soroptimist International Representative to the United Nations in New York. This is a volunteer position for Soroptimist members living in the New York area.

Soroptimist International, which consists of Soroptimist International of the Americas, Soroptimist International of Europe, Soroptimist International of Great Britain & Ireland and Soroptimist International of the South West Pacific, is a global volunteer movement working together to transform the lives of women and girls. Our network of over 72,000 club members in 121 countries works at a local, national and international level to Educate, Empower and Enable opportunities for women and girls.

Soroptimist International advocates for human rights and gender equality through education and empowerment. At the heart of Soroptimist International’s advocacy is its work across seven UN Centres, in which Representatives ensure that the voices of women and girls around the world are included in international decision making. Soroptimist International collaborates with other like-minded organisations on issues of mutual concern, working together towards our common aspirations for women.

The UN Representatives advocate effectively on behalf of women and girls as a result of evidence provided by every Soroptimist taking direct action at the local level. The current priority area of focus is the Sustainable Development Goals, which the UN set in 2015 as the agenda for the next 15 years, concentrating on Goal 4 – Education, and Goal 5 – Gender Equality, and other areas that relate to women’s empowerment.

Soroptimist International is looking to appoint UN Representatives in the New York area who will an effective team of representatives to attend official UN meetings, serve on committees, collaborate with like minded organizations, write reports in order to inform members about import issues relating to women and girls.

We are looking for individuals with:

- Experience or knowledge of the United Nations or an interest inhuman rights and issues facing women and girls
- A knowledge of Soroptimist International’s work
- Good report writing and oral communication skills in English

The applicant should appreciate the time commitments required of the role and must have regular use and access to email and the internet.
Please return your completed application form to Hannah Agius, SI Advocacy Coordinator, Soroptimist International HQ (with ‘UN Rep Application’ as the subject line): advocacy@soroptimistinternational.org.

Deadline for receipt of the application is 29 May 2020.

We look forward to receiving your application.

Best wishes,

Beverly Bucur
SI Director of Advocacy

The Role of Soroptimist International Representatives at the United Nations

Soroptimist International’s volunteer United Nations Representatives serve as a link between Soroptimist clubs, regions/unions and Federations, and the international community. They work to ensure that the advocacy priorities of SI and the voices of women and girls are shared with decision-makers and policy-makers at a global level.

UN Representatives also share information on emerging issues, trends and best practices to SI through SI Headquarters. The activities undertaken by SI’s UN Representatives are supported by the SI Advocacy Manager at SIHQ, the SI Director of Advocacy and the SI Global Executive Director.

To support SI’s work at the UN, each Representative will be assigned specific thematic areas, Commissions and Committees to follow and on which to develop expertise, as appropriate to the UN Centre at which they are active.

Each SI UN Representative has these key responsibilities:

- Follow UN discussions and resolutions relevant to the thematic area to which they have been assigned
- Successfully complete a 6 month to 1 year training session
- Seek leadership opportunities relevant to their assignment
- Participate in discussions expressing the Soroptimist viewpoint
- Communicate with government delegates, agencies and programs to inform them of SI’s advocacy position
- Liaise regularly with non-governmental organisations which work on similar issues to build advocacy-based relationships
- Work with SI’s Advocacy Manager and SI Director of Advocacy to create an annual work plan that contributes to the achievement of SI’s goals
- Attend online meetings and participate in calls with SIHQ
- Attend team meetings with other SI UN Representatives at their Centre
- Report to SIHQ on Representatives’ UN and advocacy activities
- Support international communications by writing blogs, reports, articles etc
- Familiarise themselves with current key issues affecting women and girls
